Decision of Interstate Commerce Commission Expected Today.

It is expected that the Interstate Commerce Commission will today forward to the Senate the result of the investigation it has made into the issuance of $167,102,400 worth of bonds by the New York Central Railroad. The object of this issue of bonds is to bring about a consolidation of the New York Central, Lake Shore, and other railroads. The bonds are to be issued to take up 31-2 per cent bonds, the new bonds to bear 4 per cent interest.

It is believed that the report of the nission will be adverse to the railroads, but whether it is or not, the bonds can be issued and the consolidation take place, as the commission in its report will merely express opinions
